Who are we?

Organic Grain Exchange is the online platform to buy and sell organic commodities. We strive to promote sustainable, organic agriculture by providing the only platform that creates transparency while also solving market inefficiencies. Our mission is to provide hassle-free exposure to the best organically produced commodities.

What do we do?

Organic Grain Exchange unites buyers and sellers. Producers can list their products to sell to a multitude of buyers that were previously unavailable to them. Additionally, potential buyers can use Organic Grain Exchange to fulfill all of their organic needs.
